

Louisville Evening Express.

OLD SERIES--VOL. XXV.

LOUISVILLE, MONDAY EVENING, JULY 19, 1869.

NEW SERIES--VOL. I. NO. 77 79

THE CITY.

Board of Health.
The Honorable Board of Health meets at the Chamber, on Sixth street, to-morrow night.

Personal.
Our clever friend, Big Barker, of the New York store, has returned from the East. We are glad to see the light of Ben's countenance again.

Thanks.
Messrs. Richard Granger and John Lyons, of the Adams Express Company, have our thanks for files of New York papers in advance of the mails.

Death of a Valuable Horse.
The well-known and valuable horse "Ben," belonging to Dr. John E. Crowe, died yesterday suddenly.

Base Ball.
The Falls City and Atlantic base ball clubs will play a match game of base ball at the corner of Twenty-first and Broadway streets, at three o'clock this afternoon.

Bonds Required.
Two young men, Dan American and John Waters, had an altercation on Fifth street, between Main and Market, last night, and the latter was arrested for carrying concealed a deadly weapon. Officers Just and Maguire said they made the arrest to prevent "another Fifth-street murder." Waters gave bond to Esquire Jos. Clement to answer the charge.

The New Charter.
This important question has at last been taken up, and is the topic of discussion by the press and the people. Meetings are held every night, but we hear as yet of no one on the stump opposing its passage. It has imperfections undoubtedly, but is certainly an improvement on the old one, and will no doubt carry by a large majority.

Hon. Wm. H. Wadsworth to Speak.
Hon. Wm. H. Wadsworth (Republican) will address the citizens of Louisville on Wednesday next. The place where he will speak has not yet been announced, but it will probably be at the courthouse. Mr. Wadsworth speaks in behalf of the Republican party, but he should be heard. He is an eloquent, a powerful speaker, and will undoubtedly make the most of the cause he represents.

The Rain Storm.
A rain storm came to the relief of suffering human nature yesterday afternoon, and soon cooled the hot atmosphere. There was a heavy fall of rain for an hour, accompanied with wind. A cherry tree was blown down in the yard of Mr. Irwin Bell, corner of Fifteenth and Madison, slightly damaging the kitchen. A few trees in the suburbs of the city were also blown down.

Hon. Mr. Golladay's Speech.
Hon. J. S. Golladay delivered a speech on Saturday evening, on reconstruction and the currency, but the latter formed the more important branch of his address. He is an avowed repudiationist of the whole bonded debt. It is understood that he is a candidate for United States Senator from Kentucky, and makes his race chiefly on this platform. Mr. Golladay is an effective speaker, and presented his views with clearness and power.

SECOND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.
A new edifice to be erected.
It is understood that the congregation of the Second Presbyterian church (Rev. Stuart Robinson) have purchased from Col. Geo. Hancock the splendid lot on the southeast corner of Second and Broadway, and will, in a short time, erect a large edifice thereon. This is one of the most eligible locations in the city. The new church will cost about one hundred thousand dollars.

The New Currency.
A few specimens of the new ten cent currency have found their way to this city. The note is a trifle smaller than the former issue. On the left is the head and bust of a rather pretty woman, with abundant flowing tresses, a liberty cap and a scallop coat of mail. On the right is the Treasury seal, done in red. The reverse side follows old fashions in color, being a dark green. The figures are in Arabic instead of Roman numerals. The engraving an expert pronounced fine.

Police Matters.
Police matters in the city yesterday were not very lively. At the first-street station six drunks and disorderly conduct and two lunatics, occupied the cells and made the day in that immediate locality hideous with their yells and unearthly screeches.

Not a single name graced the jail slate at a late hour last night.

We heard of no disturbances occurring at either of the numerous beer gardens yesterday, though an enormous amount of lager was drunk up—we mean down.

NEW CHARTER.
Speaking in the First Ward.
On next Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock, there will be an interesting discussion of the new city charter at the "Kentucky Bourbon House," Fred Vissman's, Dr. Max well, delegate from the First ward in the charter convention, and other gentlemen fully posted on the charter question will be present, and thoroughly analyze and explain for the voters of that ward, the charter which will soon be before the public to vote upon.

The voters of the First ward should not miss this opportunity to get a full understanding of this important subject. Turn out first.

AN OLD FIREMAN GONE.

Death of Peter Berry.
At half-past 12 o'clock p. m., on Saturday, Peter Berry died. He was, perhaps, the oldest fireman in the department at the time of his death. He had served the city in the capacity of a fireman for seventeen years, having been one of the charter members of the old Lafayette (hand) engine company. A man of steady habits, irreproachable character, kind and social disposition, every one who gained his acquaintance became his friend.

The deceased was about 45 years of age. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn the loss of one who was ever a kind and affectionate husband, and indulgent and watchful father.

The officers and members of the fire department, feeling keenly the death of their friend and comrade, held a meeting at the office of the Chief Engineer on Saturday night. We give the following official report:

At a meeting held at the office of the Chief of the Fire Department, M. J. Paul was called to the chair and Joseph Given appointed Secretary. On motion, a committee of three was appointed to draft appropriate resolutions expressive of sympathy and condolence with the widow, orphans and relatives of our late respected brother, Peter Berry.

Resolved, That we, the members of the Fire Department, do sympathize with the widow, orphans, and relatives of deceased.

Resolved, That in his death the department has lost one of its best and most faithful members, he having been a member of the volunteers and present department for 17 years.

Resolved, That the members of the Fire Department wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the widow of the deceased, and also published in the city papers.

H. CURRY, GRO. EARLY, J. S. GIVEN, Secy.

M. J. PAUL, Chairman.

The remains were conveyed to the Eastern Cemetery last evening, followed by a long procession of mourning friends, including a large number of firemen. Peace to his ashes.

Ups and Downs in Life.
Fortune is said to be fickle, at best. Fate isn't much better, if a fellow trusts it too far. Some years ago a worthy young knight of the tape and shears arrived in Louisville and "set up shop." His name was Rupert Rausch, and he came from Germany. He then followed an honorable calling, and bade fair to become a useful and exemplary citizen. But he was not satisfied with the daily routine of shop-work, and essayed life as a saloonist. He set up a first-class saloon (of the kind) in a central locality, and furnishing it with a few knock-kneed chairs, three zeidels and a half a quarter of beer, and a quarter dozen bottles, for those who might want to refresh themselves at his establishment. But the sequel proved that Rupert was not cut out for a successful beer-slinger. His mercurial temperament led him into divers indiscretions, principal among which was a weakness he had for beating time on the nodules of such customers as asked for credit after they had drunk Rupert's beer. This little weakness brought him to the police station. From one difficulty he fell into another, until finally his splendid saloon was seized by an unrelenting creditor, who, as Rupert said, had a "cattle" mortgage upon it, which, if bed-bugs and other small animals were taken into account, may have been very true. From one misfortune Rupert ran into another, until, several days ago, fate and misfortune found him a passenger in the "Black Maria," on his way to the celebrated summer resort familiarly called Beargrass, where he will play with the pebbles along the shores of that classic stream for the period of thirty days. Rupert's former vocation must have taught him that it is "never too late to mend," an axiom he will not fail to realize while chewing the bitter end of reflection at the city's asylum for the erring.

A Generous Proposition.
Rev. A. H. Redford, D.D., author of the History of Methodism in Kentucky, gives all the profits of this interesting and valuable work to the Tennessee Orphan Asylum, at Clarksville, on as many copies as the agent can sell or has sold. This new work has the highest commendations of the secular and religious press, and is indorsed not only by the journals of the Methodist church but also by those of other Christian denominations. With its literary excellence, the force and fascination of its narratives, biographies, and the skillful grouping of men, the deep philosophy of events, and maintaining a beautiful vein of piety throughout, and the entire proceeds to be given to a noble charity, appealing with claims unsurpassed, to the tenderest sympathies of humanity, we predict for it unparalleled sale.

Let those who would head the wail of distress which comes up from the thousands of destitute orphans in the South, consider that the book is richly worth the price—a single incident of its numerous incidents frequently being more than remunerative, and that the profits are devoted to furnishing a home and educational facilities, with wholesome influences, to the destitute and helpless orphans of the gallant Confederate dead.

Persons wishing to aid the Asylum in the manner proposed, can send orders to Rev. A. Mizell, care Publishing House, Nashville, Tenn., accompanied by $2 for one volume, or $4 for both, the first and second volumes. All such orders will receive prompt attention.

Address to the African Race.
Major M. R. Delaney (negro), will deliver a lecture at Quinn Chapel to-night, at 8 o'clock. Subject—the progress of civilization, and origin of races and colors.

DR. ENGLEMAN.

HE CLAIMS TO BE AFFLICTED WITH SOFTENING OF THE BRAIN.

NO EVIDENCE AGAINST HIM.

In our Saturday's issue we gave quite a lengthy account of the arrest of the above-named personage, together with the circumstances under which the arrest was made by detectives Bligh and Gallagher. We paid a visit to Engleman, at the First-street stationhouse yesterday. When we approached him he suddenly assumed a frightened look and paced hurriedly up and down his cell, uttering at the same time the most horrid cries, as though suffering great pain.

He told the station-keeper he had been examined by several physicians a short time prior to his arrest, and they informed him he was seriously afflicted with a malady similar to softening of the brain. He also stated that he had been under medical treatment for several weeks previous to his arrest. Whether these assertions are true or not is difficult to tell. One thing is evident, if he is not a lunatic he plays the role better than any professional stage we ever saw. In answer to the question why he ran from the detectives when he first got sight of them, he says it was owing to his exceedingly nervous temperament; that he was always very nervous. The Doctor declares that the detectives may telegraph all over the world, and if they can find a single person who will make oath that he ever wronged him, he will cheerfully make the said detective a gift of every cent he is worth. This is one very fair proof that the Doctor is crazy.

Up to this time, as far as we have been able to learn, no conclusive evidence of either his guilt or innocence has been obtained by the detectives, and the case is still shrouded in mystery.

Crazy.
Officer Fritsch yesterday found a man lying at full length upon the sidewalk on Second street. The officer at first took the man to be simply dead drunk. He raised him to his feet, and told him to go home, or to his boardinghouse, else he would be compelled to lock him up in a stationhouse. The man replied in a saucy, profane speech, but hobbled off in a swaggering gait toward Main street. A short time afterward the officer had occasion to pass down to Main street, and a short distance from the corner of Second he found the same man again lying flat upon the pavement. The officer then took the man into custody and placed him in the First-street station. He claimed to be the father-in-law of a Main street merchant, and was as crazy as a loon. For a whole hour he imagined he was on board of a sinking steambot, exclaiming at intervals that "the darn boat's going down, sure—one thousand barrels of cement on board, and not a d-d dollar's worth of insurance!" It was believed by the officers at the station, that the unfortunate fellow was afflicted with a slight case of galloping tremens.

Excitement on Marshall Street.
At about half-past six o'clock last evening a small rumpus occurred between three young men. A policeman arrested two of the participants; the other one escaped. The officer put the two he had arrested in the First-street station, and proceeded up town to arrest the combatant who made his escape. When he arrived at Marshall street he met two policemen who were hunting for the same rash youth, who had in the short time, that intervened since leaving First street, got into a difficulty with some one on Marshall street. The three officers caught up with the young man, who gave the officers a chase of several blocks, before they could bring him to a halt. When they succeeded in doing this, the young man pulled out a knife and showed fight. After being tamed down with a cudgel, however, he permitted himself to be deposited in Clay-street station.

How to Behave at the Postoffice.
When you call at the postoffice for your mail, and the clerk hands it out, be sure to ask him if that is all. If you ask for your mail and the clerk tells you there is none for you, be sure to tell him there ought to be. Then go right home and send the rest of your family to ask the same question at intervals throughout the day. When you want a stamp on your letter, tell the clerk to put it on for you. He has nothing else to do, and ought to be kept busy. In case you put the stamp on your self, soak it in your mouth long enough to remove all the mucilage. It will then stick to the envelop till it gets dry, and no longer. If you have a box without a key to it, drum on it loudly till the clerk hands out your mail. It makes him feel good, especially if he is waiting on some one else.

A Card from Col. Jos. B. Read.
For the Louisville Express.
LOUISVILLE, KY., July 17, 1869.
To the voters of the Sixth Legislative District Composed of the Eighth and Ninth Wards.

Tendering my heartfelt acknowledgments to the numerous friends who have expressed their determination to support me for the Legislature, and assuring them that such evidences of their partiality will ever be held in grateful remembrance, allow me to say that circumstances have occurred, since my announcement as a candidate, which make it inexpedient for me to continue the race. Therefore permit me to announce that I am no longer a candidate.

Yours Truly,
JOSEPH B. READ.

Local Chat.

Yesterday was a pleasant day—not so hot as it has been for some days past. The splendid rain in the afternoon cooled the atmosphere.

The enginehouses and steamers of the fire department are being repaired, one at a time.

Nat. Stinson, the champion rowist, was defeated by Louis Daubert in a race for $200 and the championship, Saturday evening.

The Marine Hospital will not be converted into a beer garden by a "wealthy citizen," as has been rumored.

The Masons contemplate building a Masonic widows' and orphans' home in this city at an early day.

St. Michael's Benevolent Society will give a grand picnic at Woodland Garden on Tuesday next.

The beer gardens were thronged with patrons yesterday. Beer flowed copiously.

The city has ordered a new hook and ladder truck for the fire department.

Masonic Temples, when the projected improvements are made, will be one of the handsomest theaters in the West.

Many persons who have examined the cells in the new jail, say no prisoner will ever escape from them—alive—provided he stays in any considerable length of time. They have an unhealthy look—for thieves.

The police court is the only place of amusement now open to the public. Rare scenes transpire there every day.

Professor Rarey tamed two vicious horses at Able's stables, on Saturday. Rarey soon takes all the (re)are out of a horse.

We are informed that the Park Association will endeavor to purchase from the city all of Jefferson street from Third to Fifth. They admire it for its natural advantages in the way of rugged scenery, such as hills, valleys, ponds, &c. (Joke.)

At the meeting of the Farmers' Club, in Masonic Temple, on Saturday, a quorum was not present, and no business was transacted.

Mortality Report for Week Ending July 17
LOUISVILLE, July 15, 1869.

Cholera Infantum..... 18
Consumption..... 4
Enlargement of Liver..... 1
Gastric Ulcer..... 1
Pneumonia..... 2
Old Age..... 1
Still-born..... 2
Typhoid Fever..... 1
Compression of Brain..... 1
Unnatural Death..... 1
Dropsy..... 1
Unknown..... 10
Total..... 46

SEX.
Male..... 23
Female..... 23

COLOR.
White..... 9
Black..... 9
Savitory..... 9

AGE.
Under three years..... 31
3 to 6 years..... 1
6 to 10 years..... 3
10 to 20 years..... 2
20 to 30 years..... 2
30 to 40 years..... 2
40 to 50 years..... 2
50 to 60 years..... 2
60 to 70 years..... 2
70 and over..... 1
Total..... 46

Without medical attention..... 14
SAMUEL MANLY, M. D., Sec'y of Board of Health.

THE SIXTH LEGISLATIVE DISTRICT.

Duke vs. White.
For the Louisville Express.

Mr. Editor—A very spirited and sensible article appeared in a recent issue of The Daily Times, embracing some wholesome truths for the digestion of the voters of the Sixth district. In regard to Gen. Duke it holds the following language: "Gen. Duke, the 'most available man,' a 'son of Mars,' unaccustomed to the performance of civil duties, a stranger, undisciplined, standing solely upon his military record, is put forward as a formidable opponent to Col. White. No intelligent citizen will fail to discern the attitude of Gen. Duke and the interests he represents. Identified with, or at least supported by an obnoxious clique, and possibly in the interest of one 'high in authority,' to become a candidate, and to present a profitable office, and running upon a sentiment to which our people, in the kindness of their hearts, have already accorded too much, he boldly takes the field against one of Louisville's oldest and wealthiest citizens. True, he has an undoubted right to be a candidate, but upon what does he rest his claim? For the sympathy and support of our people? Although a Kentuckian, he has but recently returned to the State, and has resided but a few months in the district in which he offers. And if he were a Louisville man, as he is a Kentuckian, he would be known by fame only as a 'carpet-bagger.'"

This has the ring of the true metal. No man who believes the representations of "Ninth Ward" to be correct can conscientiously vote for Gen. Duke. It is a notorious fact that he has been but a short while a "citizen," and previous to this commencement of the present canvass, was almost a total stranger to the voters of the district. His military fame, it is true, had preceded him, for he was known, as he is to the State and country, as "Morgan's brains." (?) possessing some military capacity. But the mere fact that a man is in any degree a success as a military chieftain, does not of itself entitle him to greater consideration than others whose genius takes a less destructive turn, especially when the question of fitness for the discharge of civil duties is involved. If Gen. Duke is, as charged, the representative of a "circle" or "clique" or a peculiar class of men, or if he is in the interest of any individual, seeking thereby to enhance such interest, or if he represents the tobacco interests, or the warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a great risk of being placed in just such category. We know him to be a gentleman and scholar, and congratulate our citizens upon their good fortune in having one in their midst capable in time of becoming a good citizen and an ornament to the city and State. No tobacco interests, or warehouseman, or warehouseman and inspector and not the buyer and seller, then indeed he deserves to be discountenanced by every honest voter. We would be far from applying the odious epithet, "carpet-bagger," to Gen. Duke, although every one must allow he runs a

The wholesale liquor dealers are still exercised over the late ruling of the Commissioner. As this is a matter of great interest to a large portion of the business men of this community, we propose to explain it, so that the public at large may see how needlessly burdensome, and we think improper, this construction is.

Mr. Delano, in his circular No. 76, says: Under the provisions of section 25 every barrel of rectified spirits filled for shipment, sale or delivery on the premises of any authorized rectifier, must be gauged and inspected and have affixed thereto the stamp for rectified spirits.

Mr. Delano then proceeds to define what constitutes a rectifier, as follows:

Any person who purchases tax-paid spirits and redistills or compounds the same, or who purifies or refines such spirits, is a rectifier as defined by law, and the spirits so redistilled, compounded, refined or purified, are rectified spirits, and must have the stamp for rectified spirits.

The law, section 59, defines a rectifier in somewhat different language, as follows:

Every person who rectifies, purifies, or refines distilled spirits or wines by any process other than by original and continuous distillation from mash, wort, or wash, through continuous column vessels and pipes, until the manufacture thereof is complete and every whole or retail liquor dealer who has in his possession any still or leach tub, or who shall keep any other apparatus for the purpose of refining in any manner distilled spirits, and any person who, without rectifying, purifying, or refining distilled spirits, shall, by mixing such spirits, wine, or other liquor, with any materials, manufacture any spurious, imitation, or compound liquors for sale under the name of whisky, brandy, gin, rum, wine, spirits, cordials or wine bitters, or any other name, shall be regarded as a rectifier, and as being engaged in the business of rectifying.

Nothing can be plainer than that this refers to two classes of persons. First to actual and legitimate rectifiers, those who are prepared by still, leach-tub or some other apparatus, to redistill, rectify, purify or refine spirits.

Secondly to those persons engaged in manufacturing "spurious" or "imitation" liquors.

About this there is no complaint, nor can be, so long as the proper distinction is kept in view. But the law explicitly provides for another class of dealers, whose duties, liabilities, penalties, &c., are as clearly provided for. Section fifty-nine describes a "wholesale dealer" as follows:

Every person who sells, or offers for sale, foreign or domestic distilled spirits, wines or malt liquors, in quantities of not less than five gallons at the same time, shall be regarded as a wholesale liquor dealer.

Now let us see what section twenty-five says:

Section 25. Whenever any cask or package of distilled spirits shall be filled for shipment, sale or delivery, on the premises of any wholesale liquor dealer or compounder of liquors, it shall be the duty of a United States Gauger to gauge and inspect the same, and place thereon an engraved stamp signed by the Collector of the district and the Gauger, stating the name of the compounder or dealer, and the date when affixed, and the number of proof gallons; which stamp shall be as follows:

WHOLESALE LIQUOR DEALER'S STAMP No. _____
Issued by _____ Collector
District, State of _____, wholesale
Liquor Dealer of _____ District, State of _____, 18____ proof gallons. _____ U. S. Gauger, District, State of _____

It seems then that the Commissioner is a law unto himself. He ignores both the letter and spirit of the law as enacted by Congress, and makes one to suit himself, or to serve the ends of favored individuals.

The law says that a wholesale dealer is "one who sells in quantities of five gallons and upwards," and that every package of spirits filled on the premises of a wholesale dealer for shipment, sale or delivery, "shall have a wholesale dealer's stamp."

Mr. Delano says they must and shall have a rectified stamp.

We learn that the Assessor of this district decides that the addition of anything whatever to a barrel of whisky is rectifying. For instance, some retailers prefer a dark color, and when this is so it is the universal practice to add sufficient burnt sugar to make the color dark enough. Mr. Needham decides that no matter how little change may be effected, that any change of any conceivable nature is rectifying, and to add this without paying a rectifier's license, subjects the liquor to seizure and confiscation.

Now let us see what the law says about these slight changes.

Part of section forty-five says:

Every wholesale dealer shall provide himself with a book, &c., and shall, on the same day on which he receives any spirits, and before he shall draw off any part thereof (it is here implied that a wholesale dealer may draw off) or add water or anything thereto, (it is here implied that a wholesale dealer may alter) enter into said book, &c.

From the wording of this section it is apparent that the framers of the law had in view changes in the character of spirits rather than rectifying, and the manufacture of spurious liquors.

That there are other changes known to all dealers is true, and it was intended as simple justice by the framers of the law, that the law make recognition of the fact.

As to the animus which causes the As-essor to decide otherwise, each man must judge for himself. Seemingly he construes the law so that it shall be as burdensome as possible.

The law admits that there are dealers in spirits other than rectifiers. The Assessor says not. The law makes plain provision for stamps for wholesale dealers other than rectifiers' stamps. Mr. Needham positively refuses to affix any other than rectified stamps. His application of the law is improper and unjust.

The Sixth District Roll.

Col. Jos. B. Read announces, in a card elsewhere printed in the EXPRESS, that he declines a further contest for the legislature in the Sixth district. This will occasion regret among many persons who are the warm friends of Col. Read, and who had resolved to support him. The race is now between Col. White and Gen. Duke, and right well contested it will be.

In this connection we may remark that we print a communication in another column advocating the election of Col. White over Gen. Duke. It is inserted as an advertisement and paid for as such, and our columns are open of course to the friends of the General. Both of these gentlemen are strict Democrats, and both are men of merit and mark. We take no part in the contest, but our columns are open to their friends.

The English and the Americans surpass all other people in the size and elegant typography of their newspapers. Many French books are handsomely printed, but the Paris newspapers are small, poorly printed sheets, barren of news, and showing ability only in their departments of theatrical and art criticism and gossip, and of anecdotes, witticisms and small talk about society, politics and the doings of the day, which make up a large part of the limited amount of reading matter they give.

There are papers printed in the Sandwich Islands that are far superior to any of the French journals as specimens of typography. The Independent Belge, the leading journal of Brussels, would not, in appearance, be creditable to a backwoods town in Kentucky, and the newspapers of Madrid are even less attractive. There is one weekly paper published in Paris, the elegant appearance of which must cause the French printers to stare with wonder. It is an American paper printed in London.

It has been truthfully said that the Republican party is splitting up. In Maine, it has divided upon the question of political action in reference to temperance. In Massachusetts, it is to go under, according to the Radical papers and correspondents, on account of the prohibitory law. In New York, it is in a state of chronic corruption and constitutional internecine strife; so much is it in the way of decadence that the Albany Evening Journal almost gives it up in despair. In Missouri, the party is divided into two factions, headed respectively by Senators Drake and Schurz. Schurz is in favor of enfranchising the whites of Missouri, disfranchising the Radical party. Drake opposes this measure. The quarrel is a fierce one. In Tennessee the party is rapidly going to the dogs. And such is the case almost everywhere.

The New York Tribune propounds this conundrum to the world at large:

Have you any record or recollection of an act passed by a Democratic Legislature of any State designed or calculated to prevent illegal voting?

If no Democratic Legislature has passed such an act, it is simply because all Democratic Legislatures know that your party will vote illegally, in spite of all the laws they could enact in a lifetime. There is an effort being made in Massachusetts to stop, by law, all whisky drinking; but the more rigidly the law is enforced, the more whisky is drunk. An attempt to break, by legislative enactment, the Radical party's habit of voting illegally would end in the same way. The habit is fixed, and cannot be eradicated by legislation.

GEN. CANBY'S persistence in insisting that the test oath must be taken by the members of the new Legislature of Virginia, has caused some consternation in the victorious party. Many of the Representatives elected by the Conservatives will be unable to take that oath; and some of the Radical members also will not be more fortunate. The papers which supported Col. Walker during the canvass agree in the opinion that the requirement made by General Canby, is uncalled for, impolitic and unjust.

The periodical rumors that the Emperor of France is very unwell are again in circulation. We read in the English papers that recently he fainted after a déjeuner, that he walks with great difficulty, and, being compelled to take carriage exercise, is assisted into his carriage by two attendants.

BONNER paid $30,000 for Dexter, and it is said that he has offered a like sum for the famous trotting mare, "American Girl." Bonner is no doubt making money fast with the Ledger, but the man who invests sixty thousand dollars in a couple of horses merely for his own private use, is a fool if he expects to die outside the poor-house.

RAWLINS has spoken. During the interview which Governor Walker had with the President, the other day, Rawlins is said to have remarked that "he thought Virginia was the only truly reconstructed State in the South." This thought of Rawlins is not only sublime, but valuable.

In our notice, on Saturday, of the antecedents of Asa Packer, the Democratic nominee for Governor of Pennsylvania, we confounded him with ex-Governor Wm. F. Packer. It was a confounded error. Asa Packer never was in Congress, but Wm. F. was; and Asa Packer has not been Governor, but he will be.

The New York Express begs the Wall Street Shylocks to make a note of the fact that the Bank of England has reduced the rate of interest to three per cent., and follow the good example. The Express evidently forgets that good examples are a thing which Wall Street never follows.

The New York Tribune is not pleased with the nomination of Hon. Asa Packer. It says "there is no one acquainted with him who can honestly say that if he is not the result of his past exertions he would now be a candidate for Governor in Pennsylvania." We should like to know who can honestly say he would not have been General Grant was elected President although the net result of his past exertions before the war, was not sufficient to support his own family. He not only wanted twenty millions to qualify him for the place, but he wanted everything else.

A BAND of wandering Gypsies in the State of Delaware have been detected in attempts to kidnap handsome young girls. The object is supposed to be ransom. Delaware is a small State, we know, but it is certainly large enough to contain at least a few double-barrel shot guns—the best remedy for such conduct on the part of the Gypsies.

A YOUNG man in New Hampshire used "Fowler's Solution" to improve his complexion. The improvement may have been secured, but he did not live to enjoy it. An overdose of the solution deprived him of that pleasure.

CALIFORNIA has one hundred thousand Chinese to be enfranchised by the fifteenth amendment. No wonder the Democracy of that State cry out against the proposed adoption of that great political inquiry.

CITY ITEMS.

Messrs. Morris, Southwick & Co. sell at auction this (Monday) afternoon, at 5 o'clock, a beautiful building lot, situated on Fifth street, between Chestnut and Broadway.

CHEAP PRINTING.

BILL HEADS. $5 Per Ream.

BUSINESS CARDS. $3 Per 1,000.

BILLS LADING, DRAY TICKETS, CIRCULARS, POSTERS, PROGRAMMES, BRIEFS, PAMPHLETS, AND EVERY OTHER KIND OF JOB PRINTING, AT THE VERY LOWEST PRICES, DONE PROMPTLY AND IN STYLE EQUAL TO ANY IN THE COUNTRY. AT COTIER-JOURNAL JOB ROOMS. 131 Broadway.

A desirable building lot, located on Fifth street, between Chestnut and Broadway, will be sold at auction this (Monday) afternoon, at 5 o'clock, by Morris, Southwick & Co.

All kinds of Mattresses & Bedding at J. A. DICKINSON'S, 165 Main st.

Furniture Buyers.

We invite the special attention of the dealers and those wishing to purchase to the sale of elegant furniture, carpets, piano, &c., on Tuesday morning, July 20, 1899, at 10 o'clock. See auction column.

SHERMAN P. WHEAT & CO., Auctioneers.

Best light—coolest gallery—best Pictures—all sizes—lowest prices. Look for J. C. ELLIOT'S old gallery, Main street, between Fourth and Fifth. Best in the city. jy19 3t

Messrs. P. H. Drake & Co., proprietors of the PLANTATION BITTERS, are said to be the largest importers of St. Croix Rum and Calisaya Bark in America. The Rum imported by this firm is all used in the preparation of their Bitters, and is manufactured under the immediate supervision of one of their agents, upon leased plantations on the Island of St. Thomas. Over nine thousand pounds, about one million gallons, is used annually for their Bitters alone. The Calisaya Bark is all reported from Brazil, and is also gathered and selected by the natives, under the supervision of an agent sent out for that purpose. The cures produced by these Bitters are wonderful.

MAGNOLIA WATER—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price. jy14 eod3kwl

Fine Furniture, cheap, at J. A. DICKINSON'S, 165 Main st.

Revere House, Boston, Mass.

This noted Hotel has been thoroughly modernized. The house has been completely remodeled, painted, and newly furnished. Suites of rooms for large and small families—water, bathing-rooms, &c. Introduced—so that it now offers unsurpassed accommodations for travelers. The "Revere" has at all times been celebrated for its table and its attention paid its guests, and its high reputation in these particulars will be maintained.

MR. GARDNER WETTERBEE, late of the Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York, has become one of the proprietors, and will be pleased to welcome the traveling public to the above Hotel. WETTERBEE & CO., 167 Mo. W. & F. 2nd Proprietors.

Go see the cheap Spring-bottom at J. A. DICKINSON'S, 165 Main st.

For Twenty-five Cents

You can kill every cockroach, water-bug, flea, moth, bug about your premises. Lyon's Insect Powder will do it and nothing else will. Look out for frauds in buying. By none that does not bear the signature of E. Z. Lyon. If you get the right thing it is a death to all insects. Depot 21 Park Row, New York. jy19 3t

Fine and plain Musquito bars, cheap at J. A. DICKINSON'S, 165 Main st.

Picture Frames.

Having reopened our store of photographic goods, on Jefferson street, No. 80, between Third and Fourth, we are prepared to meet our old customers and friends. Our stock is new and of the latest styles, comprising rosewood, gilt and fancy frames, also, stereoscopic views of England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Spain, France, Germany, &c., &c. jy19 dim T. J. MEIRITT & BRO.

Cheapest and best Spring Beds, at J. A. DICKINSON'S, 165 Main st.

Copper-Plate Printing and Engraving.

WEDDING and VISITING CARDS, MONOGRAMS, &c., engraved to order. INITIAL STAMPS free. Visiting Cards printed from plate. A large assortment of the best French and American note paper always on hand at FRANK MADDEN'S, Jefferson street, bet. Third and Fourth. ag39 ddt

All my goods very cheap for cash. jy19 m J. A. DICKINSON, 165 Main st.

FUNERAL NOTICE.

The members of Europa Lodge, No. 123, are hereby notified to meet at their Lodge room, at 8 o'clock this (Monday) morning, to attend the funeral of sister MARY HENRY. Members in good standing of sister lodges are invited. M. BURNHAM, W. C. T. jy19

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Summer Perils—How to Escape Them.

It will not do to trifle with the health in hot weather. Vigor goes through the skin at every pore, and it is by physical vigor only that unhealthy influences can be baffled and expelled. The vital elements are evaporated in perspiration. Intense heat converts a man into a self-acting pump, and the moisture that is pumped, is derived from the blood, the well-springs of life within him. There is great need, therefore, that these sources of physical strength should be in the most perfect order, without danger or inconvenience, the extraordinary drain, if they are not healthily and low-spirited.

The natural thing is to keep the digestive apparatus in good working trim; for if the stomach, the purveyor of the system, does its duty thoroughly, the bowels, the brain, and the nervous system, being duly nurtured, will be likely to do theirs. In view of these facts, it is manifest that a powerful and wholesome vegetable tonic like HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is especially required at this enfeebling season. It is the most admirable of all correctives and invigorants. How to Live and What to Overstimulate the system. The proportions of aperient, tonic and stimulating components are judiciously graduated so that the processes of invigoration and purification go on simultaneously, and no undue excitement is created in the circulation or the brain. All unimpeded stimulants, however pure, excite the pulse and the nervous system. Their exaltation is followed by depression. When it passes off the physical and mental depression they are employed to remove returns in the aggravated form, but this is not the case when HOSTETTER'S BITTERS are taken as a tonic. The medicinal properties of the herbs, roots and gums with which they are impregnated neutralize the exciting principle of the stimulants, and the result is a tonic which is in itself the most wholesome of all the varieties of alcohol.

Self-Help for the Erring.

Words of Cheer for Young Men, who have fallen victims to the SOCIAL EVILS, desire to see HANFORD. Sent in sealed envelopes, free of charge. Address: HOWARD ASSOCIATION, Box P, Philadelphia, Pa. my22 3m

MANHOOD

And the Vigor of Youth restored in four weeks. Success guaranteed. Dr. RICHARD'S ESSENCE OF LIFE restores manly powers, from whatever cause arising. It cures all early pernicious habits, self-abuse, impotency and climate, give way at once to this wonderful medicine. It is taken regularly according to the directions which are very simple and require no restraint from business or pleasure. Failure is impossible. Sold in bottles of $3, or four quantities in one for $8. To be had only of the sole appointed agent in America, GEORGE T. BATES, 252 Second Ave., N. Y. my19 ly

Philosophy of Marriage.

A New Course of Lectures, as delivered at the New York Museum of Anatomy, embracing the subjects of: Why We Marry, What to Live for; Youth, Maturity and Old Age; Marriage Generally Reviewed; Jealousy, Indigestion; Falseness and Nervous Diseases accounted for; Marriage Philosophically and Scientifically; and the various questions connected with the subject. Each lecture is illustrated by a series of photographs, and is a most interesting and profitable study. Tickets for the course, $1.00. To be had only of the sole appointed agent in America, GEORGE T. BATES, 252 Second Ave., N. Y. my19 ly

BATCHELOR'S HAIR DYE.

This splendid Hair Dye is the best in the world; the only true and perfect dye; harmless, reliable, instantaneous; no disappointment; no itching, no redness, no loss of hair; effects of bad dyes; invigorates and leaves the hair soft and beautiful, BLACK or BROWN. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers. For a properly applied at Batchelor's Wig Factory, No. 16 Bond street, London. my21 ly

SAFETY'S GIFT.

The only cure for diseases arising from indigestion. Balaam Copaliba and Mercury discarded. Only ten cents. Sold by RAYMOND & CO. and OWEN & SUTTON, 101 Broadway, New York. my19 3t

Samaritan's Root and Herb Juice.

The only permanent cure for Scrofula, Ulcers, Sores, Tetters, and various Diseases. $1.25 per bottle. Sold by RAYMOND & CO. and OWEN & SUTTON, 101 Broadway, New York. my19 3t

For Owensboro, Evansville and Henderson.

PALESTINE. —Hurry, Master. The 19th inst., at 5 P. M. MOOREHEAD & CO. Agents. jy19 3t

Notice to Contractors.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at the City and Railroad Taxes, 1869. 10 o'clock, M., on Friday, July 28, 1899, to execute the following work:

To grade and pave and macadamize Maple street, from the north side of Eleventh to the east side of Fourteenth street. To grade and pave with block pavement the first alley west of Twelfth street, and between Walnut and Main streets. JO. H. BUNCE, Mayor. Mayor's Office, July 17, 1899. jy19 3t

City and Railroad Taxes, 1869.

CALL at the corner of Sixth and Jefferson streets and pay your City and Railroad Taxes for 1899. ADOLPH RAMMERS, Receiver. jy19 3t

AYER'S Hair Vigor,

For Restoring Gray Hair to its Natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

Nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy luster and a grateful perfume.

PREPARED BY DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

Practical & Analytical Chemists, LOWELL, MASS. PRICE $1.00.

SOLD BY E. WILDER & CO., Louisville, Ky.

AND DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE.

ARTHUR PETER, HARVEY COOPER, W. W. POWERS, PETER, POWERS & COOPER, (Successors to WILSON, PETER & CO.), Wholesale Druggists, No. 272 MAIN STREET, Louisville, Ky. jy19 3t

DRY GOODS.

THE GREAT UNDERWRITER'S SALE

DAMAGED Dry Goods

Will Commence at Trade Palace this

MONDAY, July 19,

And will Continue until the ## Present Stock is Sold.

Now is the time to Secure

the Greatest Bargains that ## have been offered for Years,

as the entire Stock must be

Sold immediately, in order to ## Repair the Damages to the ## Store

AUGUST ELECTION.

FOR POLICE COMMISSIONER.

We are authorized to announce B. FIGG as a candidate for re-election for Police Commissioner of the City of Louisville.

We are authorized to announce JOHN I. WALKER as a candidate for Police Commissioner of the City of Louisville.

We are authorized to announce DAVID HANBROUGH as a candidate for Police Commissioner of the City of Louisville.

JOHN DOYLE is a candidate for Police Commissioner, at the next election.

FOR THE LEGISLATURE.

WM. IRVIN, Sen., is a candidate for the Legislature in the Second District, consisting of the Second and Third wards of the city of Louisville.

WM. T. BUNCH is a candidate for re-election to the Legislature from the Fifth District, composed of the Seventh Ward.

WM. WOODS FERGUSON is a candidate to represent the First Legislative District of Louisville in the General Assembly.

JAMES HARRIS is a candidate for the Legislature in the Second District, composed of the Second and Third wards of the city of Louisville.

JOHN H. PRICE is a candidate for the Legislature in the Tenth Ward at the coming August election.

JOHN A. FARRSON is a candidate for the Legislature from the Seventh District of Louisville, composed of the Tenth ward, at the August election.

L. L. HYATT is a candidate for the Legislature, in Jefferson county, at the coming August election.

Col. J. B. READ is called on to become a candidate for the Legislature, from the District composed of the Eighth and Ninth wards. He will be supported by

We are authorized to announce MR. JOHN DOWNEY as a candidate for the Legislature, in Jefferson county, subject to the action of a convention.

Notice.

In order to more fully carry out the contract for the removal of the ashes, garbage, and other refuse from the city, and to place all persons owning bogs, shoats or pigs, running at large within the city limits, are hereby notified that, on and after the first day of August next, the provisions of ordinance No. 77 will be strictly enforced; and all bogs, shoats and pigs found running at large, in violation of said ordinance, after that date, will be taken up and placed in a pound provided for that purpose.

Mayor's office, July 18, 1899. jy19 3t

IMPORTANT TO ADVERTISERS!

For $10 Per Line

We will insert an advertisement in 100 Newspapers for one week, for $10.00. Includes single papers of over 2,000 circulation weekly; more than ten daily papers in which the advertisement is prominently displayed to the month in each paper, and the leading papers in more than fifty different towns and cities. Address

BERG'S UNIVERSAL RUSSIAN Healing Salve

IT RELIEVES PAIN! Those who have Wounds, Bruises, Cuts, Sores, Foments, Scalds, Bites, Frost Bitten, Rashes, Erysipelas, Children's Scour, Complaints on Head and Face are speedily cured. It has proved of great advantage to ladies and is particularly adapted for Gout, Rheumatism, Sore Legs, &c., through confinement and other causes.

It acts like magic in removing Swellings, Boils, Pimples and Cutaneous Diseases, and is equally adapted for Corns, Bunions and Sore Throat, by applying externally every evening before going to bed.

For sale by all Druggists. Price 25c, 50c and $1 per jar. Office 280 Bowery, N. Y. None genuine unless countersigned by J. C. Berg's Universal Russian Healing Salve, 280 Bowery, New York. jy19 eodly

THE MISSISSIPPO POWDER actually cures Cancer and Scrofulous Diseases of the Skin. See Report to U. S. Medical Society and statements of Physicians in circular, sent free on application.

CHAS. A. DUBOIS, General Agent, 182 Pearl Street, New York. Postoffice box 1688. jy19 3t

